

MEMORANDUM FOR:

Frank:

I told Mr. Brooks by telephone that Mr. Dulles appreciated the invitation but would regret.

Mr. Brooks understood perfectly. He confided that he had been thinking it over and had wished he had never extended the invitation because it might embarrass Mr. Dulles.

MR. DULLES:

Colonel Grogan recommends you decline the invitation by Mr. Brooks to attend a ceremony to change the name of the Chantilly National Golf and Country Club to the Dulles National Golf and Country Club.

It's a new club with big ideas. They have substantial financial backing, including Bendall of Bendall Pontiac and the Broyhills as builders.

The name change is, I suggest, related to the name of the airport. There is a trend around Chantilly to change the name of all commercial enterprises to fit the airport name.

The request to you has no strings and an obvious motivation. Perhaps a short note like the attached wishing them well would suffice.

Mr. Brooks of the Chantilly Golf and Country Club called to extend an invitation for you to be present at a ceremony when they rename their Club the Dulles Golf and Country Club; the ceremony will be attended by Congressman Broyhill and other very influential businessmen. The ceremony could be done at your convenience. What are your wishes re this? (Crescent 3-0362).

Mr. Tom Connor, Executive Director of the National Captive Nations Week Observance Committee, called to say he had been asked to see you, and wondered whether he might do so this week. He said he believes you know him. Shall we set up an appointment? District 7-1426.
